About Siya

At Siya, we don't just create products — we breathe life into stories, nurture age-old traditions, and honor the invisible hands that shape beauty from the everyday. Siya embodies the feminine soul of Nepal - rooted in the earth, resilient like its mountains, and graceful like its rivers. She is the spirit of celebration, wisdom, and craft - expressed through language, movement, and material.

Every piece we offer is a living story - one that connects you to Nepal's spirit, soil, and soul.

Our Products

From delicate embroidery on natural fibres to the poetic lines of Mithila art on ceramics, from hand-sculpted wood and metal to paper that carries the imprint of generations — we work with a vibrant range of natural crafts: fibre, ceramic, textile, wood, metal, and paper. We even explore the unexpected, like woven ceramics fused with organic threads, to carry forward traditions with innovation and care.

Every piece we offer is a living story — one that connects you to Nepal's spirit, soil, and soul.

Indigo Collection

Inspired by organic indigo hues reminiscent of sky and ocean, the Indigo Collection explores movement and depth through patterns and textures. Natural dyes, tie-dye techniques, and intricately woven textiles come together to create pieces that feel fluid, contemporary, and deeply connected to traditional craft processes.

Mithila Collection

Mithila designs are known for their intricate patterns, bold lines, and vibrant colors, traditionally depicting nature, mythology, rituals, and everyday life. Deeply rooted in storytelling and symbolism, each motif carries cultural meaning and reflects harmony, prosperity, and celebration. Inspired by this timeless art form, the Mithila Collection celebrates the essence of traditional Nepalese artistry. Intricate motifs and expressive designs are thoughtfully reimagined with a contemporary touch, bridging heritage with modern aesthetics.
